

Aarhus, February 2012

To whom it may concern

It is with pleasure that we at AS3 Companies give our recommendations and appraisals of Aarhus Academy for Global Education, AAGE.

With the establishment of the academy the city of Aarhus now offers an even broader international learning environment ensuring a solid and well founded educational base for children and adolescents. Furthermore AAGE adds to the diversity of high-level international educations offered in Aarhus underlining the overall quality.

As the power center for education, knowledge and innovation in Jutland, Aarhus welcomes AAGE as an important contributor in meeting the high demands of the modern international families contemplating residency in or around Aarhus.

Being part of the international business community in Aarhus and experienced in facilitating the integration of expatriates and guest workers in Denmark, AS3 Companies has firsthand knowledge of the requirements of international families. A solid and secure educational base for the families' youngsters is among the top priorities in making residency attractive and AAGE more than qualifies in meeting the desired standards.

AAGE's determination to provide innovative, state-of-the-art and high-quality education which will give the students the benefit of the Danish educational culture ensuring a high degree of theoretical and practical knowledge as well as social abilities and personal independency, correlates to the spirit and quality standards of AS3 Companies and we consequently offer our whole-hearted endorsement and support to Aarhus Academy for Global Education.

Sincerely
